

NATIONAL CONSECRATION TO THE DIVINE MERCY

(To be prayed in all Masses on the Second Sunday of Easter, in place of the General Intercessions)

Most Merciful Jesus,
You are the Face of the Father's Mercy.
Out of mercy you have called us.
To be merciful like the Father is the mission you have entrusted to us.

With complete trust and confidence in your boundless ocean of love, we consecrate ourselves entirely to you and place ourselves
under the protection of your merciful care.
We unite ourselves to your perfect offering,
with the Holy Spirit, to the Father,
that we may be completely transformed into Your Mercy.

Have mercy on us
for the wars among nations and terrors with which we harass one another.
Have mercy on us
for the widespread sins against truth and gruesome sins
against justice and human brotherhood.
Have mercy on us
for the blasphemies to which Your Divine Mercy is subjected to and the abominable mockery of the weak and the poor.
Have mercy on us for the abuses against human dignity, sins against life, love and family.

Help us, O Lord,
that we may reflect Your Mercy to those around us.
Guard us as your possession,
that in difficult moments we may not despair,
but with great confidence submit ourselves to your holy will.

Make us instruments of consolation to others who have lost hope and do not trust in Your Mercy.
May all people come to know Your unfathomable mercy, trust in your mercy and glorify Your Mercy forever and ever.

Jesus, King of Mercy,
we trust in You.
We are all yours.
Amen.
